

Sansin Dealers and Employees Compete in Met Con Blue 8K Adventure Run
Sansin a Sponsor of “Most Insane Obstacle Adventure Race on the Planet”

Strathroy, Ontario, Canada – June 24, 2015—The Sansin Corporation, a global leader in environmentally-friendly wood protection, brought together employees and network dealers to participate in the Met Con Blue Mountain Adventure Race, held on June 13 in Collingswood, ON. In what is billed as “the most insane obstacle adventure race on the planet,” the Sansin team of 19 members faced a grueling event consisting of 20 obstacles, including punishing inclines, rocky creeks, mud and ice pools. Sansin sponsored the Sansin High Wall, a 10-foot-high obstacle on the course.

“With 964 total participants, the Met Con Blue Mountain Adventure Race is a terrific opportunity to achieve a challenging personal goal while we build on the strength of our dealer network family,” said Sjoerd Bos, Vice President of The Sansin Corporation. “It’s also a lot of fun and we’re proud to be a sponsor of the event.” We give special recognition to Aaron Wilson of Oshawa Paint who just completed his fifth Met Con Race.

Sansin is excited to expand its dealer/employee team participation next year. Additional courses will be geared toward children, which will make it an event for the whole family. The company will also raise contributions prior to the event with all proceeds to be donated to local charities. For Sansin dealers interested in participating in next year’s event to be held on Saturday, June 11, 2016, or for more information, contact Christine Hirtzel at ch@sansin.com
