Ten More Miller Paint Stores in Pacific Northwest to Carry Sansin's Enviro-Friendly, Water-Borne Wood Finishes

Strathroy, Ontario, Canada and Portland, Ore. – May 23, 2013 – The Sansin Corporation today announced that its line of exterior Enviro stains for siding, decks, furniture and log homes, as well as Sansin's Purity® interior stains and the Eco-Tone™ color system, are now featured at an additional 10 Miller Paint Stores in both Oregon and Washington State. With this expansion, 14 Miller Paint Stores now carry Sansin wood finishes.

According to Paul Sawyer, Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Miller Paint Store headquarters, "We're introducing Sansin stains in more of our stores for two reasons. One, their eco-friendly wood finish technology is just top of the line. Second, since Miller Paint is 100% employee owned, we like the fact that Sansin focuses on serving independent retailers."

Sansin stains are particularly suited to the harsher, wetter weather conditions in the Pacific Northwest. "Our stains provide all the characteristics of penetrating oils, yet utilize moisture in the wood itself to diffuse deep into the wood tissue, even when the moisture content is as high as 25 percent," said Sjoerd Bos, Vice President of Sansin. "Sansin finishes appeal to customers since they provide long-lasting protection with high impact in an eco-conscious way. We are proud to offer our products now at even more Miller Paint locations."
